Topic:

Inclusive Community AND Effective Discipleship:

How to both integrate and educate people with disabilities in congregational life

Speaker:

Ann Hughes

Having worked professionally for about 20 years as an early intervention teacher (classroom and home-based programs), Ann first became involved with disability ministry about four years ago as coordinator of a buddy program at church with a desire to see children successfully integrated into the body of Christ. Ann currently works part-time with young children who have autism and volunteers as Disability Ministry Coordinator at Calvary Church of Souderton, Hilltown, PA.
